

APOSTOLIC CARMEL HIGH SCHOOL AND JUNIOR COLLEGE

75th INDEPENDENCE DAY CELEBRATION

ONE IS NEVER TOO YOUNG TO BE A CHANGEMAKER

The 75 years of India's Independence was celebrated with great enthusiasm by the students of Apostolic Carmel High School on 15th August 2022. Mr. Wilson Melwyn Rodrigues, a renowned Police inspector attached to the Bandra Police Station dealing with cases related to child molestation, sexual abuse against women was the Chief Guest for the Independence Day celebrations held in the School Hall. He was given a warm welcome at the school gate by the Management, staff, and students. He was escorted to the stage by the School Band and presented with a Guard of Honor by the RSP and Guiding students. At the hoisting of the National flag by the Chief Guest, the entire school saluted the flag. Then the School Band, the pride of ACHS, played the National Anthem harmoniously. A short cultural program was presented by the students of STD 10. The solemn prayer service was followed by a mime on the adverse impact of the mobile phone usage on the young citizens of the country. The skit highlighted the positive role that young people can play in the society by transforming themselves into innovative change makers. The students also enthralled the audience with a patriotic song and vibrant dances. The programme concluded with a motivational speech by the Chief Guest Mr. Wilson Rodrigues. The Principal, Sr. Marisa A. C addressed the students at the end of the programme.
