

English Literary Week (Day 3)

English Choral Recitation and Elocution Competition

Choral recitation helps build students fluency, self-confidence and motivation. The students of secondary section conducted 'English Choral Recitation' competition for the classes 5th and 6th. The judges for the event were Sr. Prescilla Lobo, Sr. Oleen and Ms. Hudah Ansari. The poems presented by the students expression emotions, feelings, ideas, etc. All the participants as well as the audience enjoyed the competition.

Elocution help students improve their communication skills, including speaking fluency, articulation, clarity and voice modulation. The competition was held for the classes 5th to 10th. The pieces selected were varied and very enjoyable. All the participants performed exceptionally well, the competition gave a lot of encouragement and confidence to the participants and to all the students present there.
