

REPUBLIC DAY

The 73rd Republic Day was celebrated in an unusual way this year with pride and reverence. Teachers had their own individual class assembly online. The virtual celebration in all the classes commenced with a prayer service for our country and its leaders. Students actively participating in the prayer service, dances, patriotic songs and speeches. This followed with Standard 1 A, B and C writing an essay on Republic Day. Standard 2 A, B and C had slogans prepared. Standard 3 A, B and C spoke about the significance of Republic Day Standard 4 A, B and C had a traditional day. These performances generated loyalty, patriotism and showcased our rich historical, traditional and cultural heritage. No celebration is complete without making us feel proud of the fact that Saare Jaahan se Acchha. Hindustan Hamara. The programme ended with the singing of our National Anthem.
