

Senior KG Elocution Competition

The Carmel Pre-Primary School conducted English Elocution Competition for Senior KG, on 6th October, 2022. This competition is an attempt to promote English speaking skills, in terms of expression, diction and voice modulation, and to develop English language in its spoken form.

Eliminations for the same were conducted in the class on 13th September, 2022.

The selected students displayed their oratory skill with zeal and enthusiasm.

The event began with a prayer song followed by an introduction to the judges. Our esteemed Judges were Sr. Maria- Headmistress of the primary section, Ma'am Ingrid Coelho- ex teacher of Carmel Pre- Primary and Sir Darryl Loyola - teacher at St.Peter's KG school. All the participants performed exceptionally well. The competition gave a lot of encouragement and confidence to all the performers.

On completion of the last contestant, the judges and our Sister in charge Sr.Miriam were invited to address the parents. They were overwhelmed by the oratory skills of the young girls. This was followed by the announcing of the winners, amidst thunderous applauding. Their confidence, expression and talent made the event truly memorable.

Winners of Sr.KG -A

1st Place – Shafiqah Lakhani

2nd Place -Aarya Gupta

3rd Place- Bhumi Pagdhare

Winners of Sr.KG -B

1st Place – Anwita More

2nd Place – Arockya Fernandes

3rd Place- Rittiya Vengulekar

Winners of Sr.KG –C

1st Place - Joanna Nadar

2nd Place- Geona Muthuraja

3rd Place- Nabha Jadhav.

