

Independence Day Activity

Its very important for our children to know that the tricolour is connected with the sentiments of every Indian and thus we must develop the love for the same. To understand the importance of our national flag the art & craft activity was held this week for the students of Std 5th to 7th . The children took up interest and came up with very creative ideas. It was celebrated with such great enthusiasm within them.

