HAIR STYLE & MAKE UP

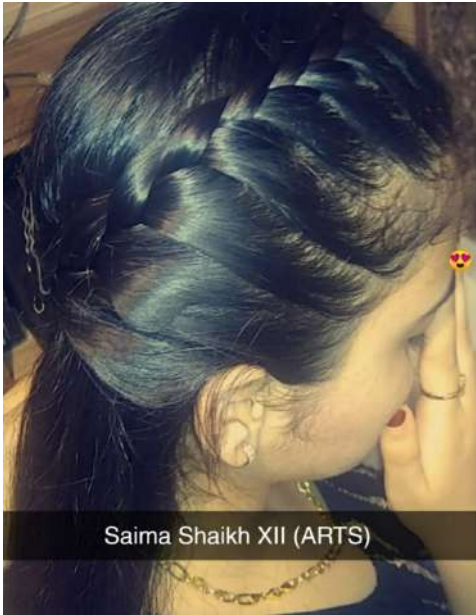

Beauty has a way of capturing attention. Beauty treatments and fashion trends have always been in trend but today more and more people have become conscious about their looks. With the boom in the entertainment industry, and more competition in modeling as well as the fashion field, the demand for good looks has come up like never before. This has resulted in a need for professionals to make people look good. The students of Std 12 Arts displayed their talent by showcasing various unique ways which make up and hair styles can be done.
